WELCOME TO FALMOUTH WEEK 2022

Falmouth Week is a major attraction for locals and visitors alike. With its origins in a local sailing regatta dating back at least as far as 1837, the week has evolved into not only a major sailing competition in the South West but also an opportunity for sailors and landlubbers to enjoy the many daytime and evening activities in the town.

Falmouth Marching Carnival

Activities from 1pm. Parade leaves at 6.30pm

The Falmouth Marching Carnival is a highlight of the town's annual events calendar! Led proudly through Falmouth by the infamous Falmouth Marine Band, every penny raised is donated to local community groups.

There is no mistaking the Falmouth Marine Band as they entertain the crowds on their way through the town centre adding madness and mayhem, often stopping to fire the chicken from the cannon.

The Falmouth Marching Carnival finishes The Waterfront, Church Street Car Park.

Falmouth Art Gallery are also running a FREE family-friendly workshop from 1pm. Create your own shiny fish before joining the fun of the carnival!

For more information or to register your FREE carnival entry, visit www.falmouthcarnival.org.uk

VICTORIAN CAROUSEL
The Moor
Head to The Moor for a ride on the grande 40-foot Victorian Carousel!

Sunday 7th - Tuesday 9th August

Music on The Moor

12.00pm - 4.00pm

There will be three days of live music performances from local solo artists, and duos taking place on the Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday afternoons of Falmouth Week. Situated on The Moor, this will showcase a variety of local talent that Falmouth and the surrounding areas has to offer.

This is a free to attend event organised by Simon Neild at Source FM

Saturday 6th August

Stand Up and Paddle - Sundowner SUP from 4.30pm

Gyllyngvase Beach, Falmouth

Take to the water and help us do more for our patients and hospitals.

Royal Cornwall Hospitals Charity, in partnership with WeSUP, bring you the very first RCHT Charity Sundowner SUP.

A chance to join many others on the water, take your stand up paddle boarding to the next level and make a difference to the people of Cornwall.
