WELCOME TO FALMOUTH WEEK 2023

KEY DATES AND LOCATIONS

Falmouth Week is a major attraction for locals and visitors alike. With its origins in a local sailing regatta dating back as far as 1837, the week has evolved into not only a major sailing competition in the South West but also an opportunity for sailors and landlubbers to enjoy the many daytime and evening activities in the town.

The Pink Wig Parade, Friday 4th August, from 4.30pm at The Greenbank Hotel

Pink wig started with a group of friends coming together in 2009 to wish Sally Hicks Wood well following her breast cancer diagnosis, pending chemotherapy, surgery and radiotherapy treatment.

On this night out 20 of us decided to wear a pink wig for a giggle - as we went to Falmouth pubs, people tried to give us money which we didn't take but it set the seed with our founder Sally for a fundraiser the following year when her first lot of treatment was finished.

So in 2010 about 70 pink wiggers went on a pub crawl armed with Breakthrough Breast Cancer collection tins and raised £1000! In 2011 we got larger and about 150 of us went out again with our pink wigs and raised £2,500! We had become too big for the towns pubs though!

Sally approached Tim Vigus from South West Bars and Events about us holding an event during Falmouth Week - Tim took a gamble on us and it paid off!!! 2012 saw our first 'event' held in the Events Square marquee and our first parade. We raised a whopping £7,700 and Pink Wig Events was formed as a fundraising group.

Since our first event we have had annual fundraisers and it has remained a ladies only night as this is how it started; girls coming together to wish our dear friend well.

Sally sadly passed away in 2014 but we are sure that she would be delighted with how the event has grown over the years and the massive £147,710.00 that has been raised for Breast Cancer Now and The Mermaid Centre at Treliiske Hospital. We couldn't do it without the support of those who attend and those who support the event!

We split all funds raised between the two chosen charities Breast Cancer Now for the research element, as this was dear to Sally's heart with her motto being 'until we are all safe'.

We also felt that we needed to donate to our local breast care centre for women and men. We have helped buy tattoo ink for patients that have had breast reconstructions needing nipple tattoos, a 3D monitor for patients to be 'modelled' on how their reconstruction will look. This past year some of our money has contributed to the upgrade of the unit and we have also purchased two picnic benches for staff and patients attending The Cove MacMillan Centre at Treliiske.

There are only now five of us on our committee who all give their time voluntarily. We also have our families and friends who volunteer to help us on the night and help make it the success it has become!

This year the parade will start once again from Greenbank Hotel where anyone is welcome. We then head to the Moor and through town to The Waterfront at Church Street Car Park. Women & children can join the parade but the marquee is a ticketed over 18's ladies only night. Tickets can be purchased via our website - www.pinkwigevents.org.uk

T-shirts are also available - see our Facebook page for details.

The night includes:

Zumba warm up with Embrace Dance Fitness

DJ - Nate Valentino

Live Band The Strutts

Pink wig cocktail & prosecco bar in the marquee.

Falmouth Marching Carnival, Saturday 5th August Activities from 3pm, Parade leaves Falmouth Rugby Club at 6.30pm

The Falmouth Marching Carnival is a highlight of the town's annual events calendar! Led proudly through Falmouth by the infamous Falmouth Marine Band, every penny raised is donated to local community groups.

There is no mistaking the Falmouth Marine Band as they entertain the crowds on their way through the town centre adding fun and mayhem, often stopping to fire the chicken from the cannon.

Falmouth Art Gallery are also running a FREE family-friendly workshop from 3pm - 5pm. Create your own shiny knights helmet from foil and other materials before joining the fun of the carnival!

For more information or to register your FREE carnival entry, visit their Facebook page facebook.com/falmouthcarnival

Falmouth Week Fireworks Display, Friday 11th August *

Come and be wowed by the spectacular Falmouth Week Fireworks!

The display will take place over the iconic setting of Falmouth Harbour. Watch as the boats and water are lit up by the explosions of colour in the sky!

There will be viewing points at Falmouth Harbour, Events Square, Custom House Quay, Prince of Wales Pier and the Docks Lookout Point. The display is being staged thanks to a partnership between Falmouth Town Council and Smart Pyrotechnics.

In the case of inclement weather, the firework display will be moved to Saturday 12th August.

*Weather permitting
